Job description – Chairman Clinical Standards and Guidelines Committee

The Chairman of CS&G committee serves a three year term of office.

The duties of the post includes:

Chairing at least two committee meetings each year.

Providing a link to the Renal Association Clinical Practice Guidelines Committee

Development of standards and guidelines for all aspects of nephrology.

Over sight of topics selected for development of standards and guidelines to ensure there is no duplication.

Review externally produced documents when requested by the BAPN Executive